New Students – Phase-In Schedule

The phase-in schedule is a specially prepared time, which assists the young child in developing his or her sense of trust. For our youngest children on the first day of the phase-in period, we ask parents to remain in close proximity to the school. Seating, shade, and coffee will be available outside while you wait. After the first day, you are welcome to wait outside for your child, or you may leave and return at the scheduled pickup times noted below.
